

AMHERST'S FAMOUS SPOTTED SALAMANDERS

A black spotted salamander with yellow spots is resting on a bed of green moss. The salamander is the central focus of the image, with its body and legs clearly visible. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a natural outdoor setting.

Get to know your amphibious neighbors.

February 9
6:30 PM - 8 PM
Hitchcock Center
for the Environment